

Extension Faculty In-Service Workshop • November 7, 2018

Committee: Andrea Kawabata, Joan Chong, Laura Kawamura, M'Randa Sandlin, Julia Zee

Program Agenda
For Extension agents, specialists, and staff
MORNING 8:00-9:00a: registration & breakfast Breakfast sponsored by Epsilon Sigma Phi, Hawai'i chapter (Alpha Omega) Brief ESP meeting (Ray Uchida, President)
9:00-9:30a: Welcome – Kelvin Sewake, Associate Dean for Cooperative Extension Getting To Know You (Joan & Laura)
9:30-11:00a: Training Topics (Julia) Healthier Communities Through a More Sustainable Food System Initiative (Kelvin) Work:Life Balance (Laura) You as UH Faculty (Andrea) Using Technology in Extension Programs : Virtual Reality tours & 4-H app (Nancy Ooki) and Precision Ag, UAS, Field Monitoring (Jensen Uyeda)
LUNCHEON 11:00a-2:00p
AFTERNOON 2:00-4:00p Workshop continues with our retirees Get Acquainted (Julia) Current Extension Programs (Andrea) Lynn Nakamura-Tengan: GET Local - Maui Clay Trauernicht: Wildfire - Oahu Savannah Katulski: Livestock nutrition, health and grazing management - Kauai Heather Greenwood Junkermeier: Intergenerational program and farm succession planning - Maui Sharon Motomura Wages: Edible crops and food safety - Big Island Naomi Kanehiro: Human nutrition - Oahu Glenn Teves: Agriculture - Molokai Q&A Retirees' Panel (M'Randa) Significant accomplishments in Extension; words of advice Q&A 4:00p Pau